HEAVY VOTE IS POLLED IN COUNTY

Many Surprises Result From First Trial of Direct Primary Law in This District

Alameda county voters gave their full strength to the political battle which was waged throughout the country. The first trial was one of the most important in the history of this district. When the votes were counted there were many surprises in store for supporters of off-shore and their friends. One of the most surprising was the victory of Edwin J. Perine over Frank Leavitt by a majority of some 300 votes. Perine is a young man who is practically unknown in politics, while his opponent is an old-time campaigner. Perine has occupied his seat in the senate for several terms and has been considered one of its leaders. He is a friend of West End and West Berkeley, while Perine has been a large majority in Alameda, which was considered strongly favorable with against him.

Washington Aug. 18.—That the next few days are apt to bring a sharper division in the Republican party between the conservatives and the radicals, with Taft leading the old guard and Roosevelt leading the progressives, is confidently expected here. The statement that Roosevelt and Taft have been in close touch since the time of the New York Republican convention in an attempt to reconcile them is regarded by politicians here as tantamount to a declaration of war.

The Radicals follow suit. The Colored Bishop has issued a political statement in which he claims to be the one to bring the conservative forces of the country together and to bring the country into line with Roosevelt.

Roosevelt is now allied with the insurgents, as they view the case.

One of the main points of contention is the fact that Roosevelt over the last month has been in close touch with Lloyd Garrison, the leader of the radical wing of the New York Republican convention.

This is regarded as a move to force the Radicals to accept Roosevelt as their candidate.

charter. It virtually makes the life of a franchise only eight and one-tenth years, for the city gains the right, at its discretion, to take over the property and plant at the end of that period.

"For myself, I do not see that it much matters what kind of franchises are allowed by the charter, since we have the referendum to apply to all franchise matters.

DRIVE CAPITAL AWAY.

"It is suggested, and I believe the suggestion worthy of careful consideration, that a too radical provision might tend to drive capital from investing here. It may be that such a provision would not make the franchise grant worth while to a company contemplating the installation of a million-dollar plant of construction work. I do not say that this provision would force capital away from Oakland, but we should consider this matter very carefully."

Dr. Pardoe stated that he was not "wedded" to this particular provision, but that it was the best he could do after much hard thinking to meet the case. The matter will be taken up again at the next meeting, when certain provisions framed by President E. H. Pendleton of the city council to be incorporated in recent franchise ordinances will be considered.

Dr. Pardoe's franchise article reads as follows:

"Every ordinance granting any franchise, permit or privilege shall provide that at any time after the expiration of one-third and before the expiration of two-thirds of the period for which said franchise, permit or privilege is granted, the city, at its discretion and upon the payment to the grantee, his successors or assigns, of actual cost of the plant, together with simple interest at an annual rate not higher than six per cent computed from the completion of said plant, may take over to itself and become the owner, with power to operate and maintain the same, the entire property and plant of the grantee, of said franchise, his assigns or successors. And in furthering thereof said grantee, his assigns or successors, shall file monthly with the city clerk during the period of construction of said plant an itemized statement of expenditures for construction during the calendar month preceding the filing of each itemized statement, verifying same with his oath. But no cost of maintenance, repair or renewal, shall be considered to be a cost of construction, and the value of the franchise, permit or privilege shall not be taken into account directly or indirectly in estimating or fixing any value hereunder. It shall also be provided in said ordinance that in case the city shall not avail itself of this right to take over and become the owner of said plant and property as above specified, the city shall at the end of the period for which the franchise, permit or privilege is granted, take over to itself and become the owner of the property and plant of said grantee, his successors or assigns, without any compensation to said grantee, his successors or assigns, except the compensation of the granting to him of said franchise, permit or privilege."

Having decided to follow the Berkeley charter in assigning councilmen to the heads of departments as commissioners, the members of the freeholders board last night clashed over the question as whether the designation of the particular department should be specified and decided before or after the election.

In practically all the modern commission charter the commissioners are elected without being tagged before hand in any official manner, and at the first meeting after election assign themselves to the various commissionships.

OPPOSED TO TAGGING.

If the provision tentatively adopted last night on the recommendation of a committee consisting of Freeholders Chamberlain, Paine and Daly, is finally incorporated in the charter, this plan will not be followed, and the electing commissioners will be designated before election as candidates for specific commissions. Notice was given by Albert Elliot and W. C. Clark that the matter will be taken up again, as they are strenuously opposed to the pre-election tagging of the commissioners.

DEFENDS POLICY.

The secretary avoids every mention of politics, but stoutly defends his policy of conservation. He also evinces a great deal of interest in the proposed Panama-Pacific Exposition for San Francisco. Easily approachable, bearing all the earmarks of a statesman, and indicating his own firm belief in his policies, Secretary Ballinger in his statement, in which he denied his intention to resign was clear, concise and to the point, and could, conceivably, be misinterpreted.

He could not discuss here the presence of Gifford Pinchot, nor his political campaigning for William Kent, the insurgent, who has won the nomination for Congress, but expressed his cordial interest in the Hatch bill, water supply for this city and asked many questions regarding the all-important topic of the big fair.

LOYAL TO COAST.

He professed his loyalty to the Pacific Coast and insisted that San Francisco was undoubtedly entitled to recognition from Washington and all the support possible in her endeavor to fittingly celebrate the greatest engineering achievement of all time.

He agreed with the men who were discussing the exposition that it meant a great deal to California, and that the opening of the Panama Canal would bring a large volume of additional business to the metropolis of the Pacific Coast. He indicated his admiration for the businesslike manner in which both the campaign for funds and the campaign for public welfare were being conducted by the committees.

COMMISSIONS ADOPTED.

Five commissions are provided under the clause tentatively adopted last night. The mayor is assigned to the Department of public affairs, and one of the councilmen as commissioner of each of the following departments: Finance and revenue, public health and safety, public works and street development.

A new feature marking a departure from precedent is the removal of the department of city engineer. All street work will be attended to by the street department and there will be a superintendent of streets and an assistant superintendent, both of whom must be by charter provision, experienced civil engineers.

PROVIDES FOR OFFICIALS.

Ten chief officials, to be appointed, are provided for in the charter. These are city clerk, city attorney, city treasurer, who is ex-officio tax collector, city engineer, chief of police, chief of the fire department, superintendent of streets, assistant superintendent of streets, health officer and purchasing agent. City clerk and city attorney are appointed by the council; city treasurer and purchasing agent are assigned to the department of finance and revenue and are appointed by the commissioner of that department; city engineer is assigned to and appointed by commission of public works, fire and police chief and health officer to commission of public health and safety, superintendent of streets and safety; superintendent of streets and commission.

Police Are Searching for Balloon Victims

DESAU, Germany, Aug. 18.—Police, gendarmes and foresters are conducting a search of the hills and forests in this vicinity today for parts of balloon or the bodies of its probable passengers.

Some woodcutters who were returning from their work in the tall forest recently observed a burning balloon drifting over the wooded hills at a considerable altitude, finally falling rapidly.

The woodcutters lost sight of the balloon as it neared the earth, but immediately notified the authorities in Desau, who sent out searching parties.

DECAPITATED BODY PULLED FROM BAY

Dredger Scoops Up Limbs and Trunk of Unidentified Man.

VALUABLE JEWELS LOST OR STOLEN

Army Man's Wife's Purse Is Gone With Diamonds Worth $1200.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—A portion of the unidentified body of a man was scooped up from the bay off section 2 of the Seawall, by Dredger No. 2 early this morning.

The dredger has been at work for several days at the foot of Powell street and when the barge came up at 8 o'clock this morning Charles Hedges, the foreman, was surprised to see a rubber boot sticking out of it. He investigated further and discovered the legs and trunk of a man. The head, as well as the upper part of the body, were missing and one foot was also gone. Deputy Coroner Quinlan was summoned and the remains taken to the morgue.

Save for a pair of blue overalls, which covered the man's form, there is no clue to his identity, although he is believed to have been a fisherman.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.—Major W. M. Wright, 3d, United States Infantry, missing at the Presidio, was found safe by the dredging machine that pulled the body from the water.

The army officer and his wife are staying at the Palace hotel and attended the Columbia theater yesterday evening.

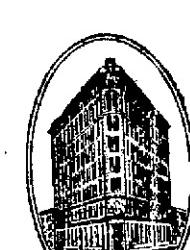

Somewhere in transit the purse was either lost or stolen. The pendant is extremely beautiful and contains large and small diamonds, while the ring is set with a diamond and an emerald.

PLEASSED WITH REPORT.

Ballinger was informed as to how the fair fund was progressing and what splendid prospects San Francisco had to offer the next Congress, and expressed keen pleasure in the report.

He was asked if he had seen any reason to change his views on conservation during the last two or three years, but

APPROPRIATES FUND.

"Congress at its last session appropriated $62,000 for the improvement of the Yosemite Valley. This is indeed $12,000 for a sprinkling system. The appropriation this year is double that of 1909. The Secretary spoke of the reason for the government giving more and more attention to national playgrounds like the Yosemite."

"While in the Yosemite," he continued, "I will look into the proposition of increased hotel accommodation so as to improve the valley as a national playground. It need not mean to sacrifice the present hotel accommodations. With the usual increase of travel in the valley there must in time be need of more hotel facilities, and they should be studied out and prepared for in advance."

Many Close Contests for State Positions

JOHNSON WILL SOON BEGIN CAMPAIGN

Republican Nominee for Governor Is Promised Aid of Political Leaders.

Hiram W. Johnson, Republican nominee for governor, who has a few weeks left before his campaign for the final goal, being supported in the contest by Curry, Governor Gillett, Stanton and many of his opponents at the primaries. What policies he will advocate he does not know present, nor will he discuss them.

Foremost is his avowed declaration of crushing William T. Berry, practically in California, and in the face of the overwhelming vote cast for him Tuesday, his utterances and general attitude show him possessed of a deep confidence that he will be elected.

CURRY OFFERS SUPPORT.

Among the first to offer congratulations to him yesterday was Curry, who telephoned him at his office. The two had a long, pleasant chat, during which Curry, after extending his good wishes to his successful rival, unhesitatingly offered his help and support. On the heels of Curry's message came words of congratulation and support from Governor Gillett, Philo A. Stanton, and Edwin A. Mewes. The messages pleased Johnson greatly particularly the one from Curry.

"Mr. Curry had nothing but the most pleasant words for me," he said "and I appreciate them greatly."

The generally avowed intent on the part of the genuine leaders of the Republicans to support Johnson eliminated, to a large extent, the feeling of doubt that existed at his headquarters in regard to this phase of the forthcoming campaign. Johnson returned the sentiment of friendship which was extended to him.

GILLETTE SENDS MESSAGE.

Gillett's telegram to Johnson was as follows:

"Congratulate you upon your great victory. Am ready to campaign for you to help make your election sure."

"My congratulations upon your victory," telegraphed Stanton. "I assure you of my loyalty to your candidate."

Reserve telegraphed at length, saying: "Please accept my sincere and hearty congratulations. I had hoped that my fellow townsmen and neighbor, Hon. Phil A. Stanton, might realize his ambition, but that may be our party have decided otherwise, and I bow to that. And am now for you as a whole, of our party which all I can do to make your victory a November as tremendous and emphatic as that of yesterday."

Achieve or Chronic—Which?

No matter if your kidney trouble is acute or chronic Foley's Kidney Remedy will reach your case. Mr. Claude Brown, Raynoldsville, Pa., writes us that he suffered, many months with kidney complaint, until he began a full treatment. At last he tried Foley Kidney Remedy and a few large bottles effected a complete cure. He says: "It has been of inestimable value to me."

WE ARE MISSING FROM THEIR HOMES

Boy Starts for School and Fails to Return to His Home.

Leaving his home at 3445 Fifth street, intending to attend school yesterday, Maude, a 15-year-old boy, has been missing since August 5, and it is thought by his parents that he has run away. He had been several times threatened to do so, and there is little doubt but that he is away on some escapade.

Mike O'Reilly, a laborer 65 years of age, residing at 2861 Alvarado avenue, has been missing since August 12. When last seen he was at the Villa saloon, and wore an old gray coat, gray trousers and brown working shirt.

Robinson Will Enter
Vanderbilt Cup Race

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—George Robinson, winner of the Vanderbilt Cup race last night, made formal entry to the eighth national road races August 2, and under the auspices of the Chicago Automobile Club.

"Two other nominations were received yesterday, swelling the lists to thirteen cars, to be driven by the leading drivers of the country."

GIVEN AWAY FREE

BERKELEY, Aug. 15.—A teamster, Maude, who has been missing since Aug. 5, and is thought to have run away, has been found safe and sound in a house in the Berkeley hills.

He was found by a woman who had been looking for him.

Is Injured by Fall on Cement Curbing

BERKELEY, Aug. 15.—Thrown from his cart against an election tent at Vine and Bonita streets in North Berkeley early yesterday morning, W. L. Turney, local circulation manager for a San Francisco newspaper, was unconscious by falling with his head against the cement curbing. Startled by the sudden impact against the tent, the ballot clerks, who were still talliving votes, went to Turney's assistance and the injured man was removed to his home, 1704 Francisco street. He suffered a severe abrasion of the scalp.

COUNTY CONVENTION IS CALLED FOR TOMORROW

Delegates Will Meet at Place to Be Decided Upon at Special Meeting This Evening

The Republican convention for Alameda county, which was called some weeks ago by the Republican party central committee, will be held tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, but the place of meeting has not yet been decided upon. This formality will be attended to at this evening's meeting, gathering of the present county executive committee, which will then meet for the last time.

One of the reasons for this day is the fact that the committee has not yet arranged the names of the delegates who were elected to the convention on the primaries or yesterday.

It is expected that 64 tickets which will be given out at the primary from each of the assembly districts were successful, for the reason that there was very little opposition to the candidates, opposed by the various county committees, which in effect indirectly at least endorsed the district delegates at the polls.

DELEGATES TO ATTEND.

So far as appears from an unofficial examination of the returns made available from the word around the district, all the delegates to tomorrow's convention will be as follows:

BANKER IS LOSER IN LIFE'S BATTLE

PLAY FESTIVAL WILL BE GIVEN

Walter C. Lowell Dies In Berkeley After a Year's Vain Fight

BERKELEY, Aug. 18.—After a year's vain fight for health in the heating air of the coast, Walter C. Lowell, banker of Modoc county, died here yesterday afternoon. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Lowell, 1556 Oxford street, and was 80 years old.

About a year ago he gave up his business duties account of his health and came to Berkeley with his family, making arrangements with his father, who is himself a retired banker. Besides his parents, he leaves a wife, Elizabeth, and two children, Clayton and Lucille. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

Convict Killed in Fall From Planks

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 18.—William F. Foley, a convict from Walla Walla, fell from some planks in the new ship building at the Walla Walla prison yesterday and was killed. He fell twelve feet, breaking his neck. Foley was walking along looking upward, and made a misstep. He was doing one to five years for a no-fund check and had served two years. He was wanted in Seattle. Speculation.

Your Freckles

Need Attention in the Spring or Face Will Stay Covered.

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The June winds bring out freckles that will stay all summer unless removed now with oiline—double strength.

This prescription for the cure of freckles is the discovery of a eminent skin specialist, and is uniformly successful that it is sold by Osgood Bros., under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of oiline—double strength, and on the first night's application will show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely.

Folk Dancing at Bushrod Is Planned for September 9.

A big play festival will be held under the auspices of the Oakland playground commission morning and afternoon of September 9. The affair will be held in Bushrod Park playground, and hundreds of children will take part in the program. The general public has been invited.

Congressman J. R. Knowland had no opponent and was reominated.

Justice of the Peace Elmer A. Johnson, incumbent candidate, and Police Judge E. B. Tappan, both of whose nominations were uncontested, polled a heavy vote.

Alpaugh Farmer Kills Himself by Accident

PORTERVILLE, Aug. 18.—The body of W. F. Adams, an Alpaugh farmer, who accidentally shot himself, was found early Tuesday morning. Adams, who was 80 years old, went out to shoot a wolf that was prowling around the neighborhood, and though the exact cause of the death cannot be ascertained, it is thought that he was standing on the edge of the ditch when the gun went off accidentally and shot him. He fell into the ditch, and his body lay there for several hours before some neighbors who were passing found him. Besides being an extensive land owner in the Alpaugh country, the deceased farmer also owned a large tract in Kansas.

William Reed, another inmate of the center, who was playing a center fielder, got over the fence after the ball, and was waiting for his return to go on with the game, but Reed failed to reappear. Then it dawned on the guards that this patient had escaped.

After a search of several hours Reed was found at his home on Franklin street in this city and pleaded guilty that he will be permitted to stay with his parole as soon as he can be granted a parole.

Dumb Parents Place Children in Asylum

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 18.—That their three children may have adequate opportunities to learn to speak, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Michelson, both deaf and dumb, have made arrangements to have the good of good jobs in British Columbia. The stowaways implicated none of the white officers.

HEAVY VOTE IS POLLED IN COUNTY

actively engaged in this profession. He was born in Oakland and before his entry into politics was in the insurance business in San Francisco.

The fight between Assessor Henry P. Dalton and I. H. Clay, in which Dalton won by some 200 votes, created much interest. Early in the fight it was believed that Clay would capture the nomination, but when late returns were received from Washington and Eden townships and other outlying districts, they reversed the order of things and gave the victory to Dalton.

County Clerk John P. Cook's victory was a foregone conclusion and there was never any doubt as to the result from the time the first returns began to trickle in. He was renominated by a large majority over Thomas M. Robinson and Harry L. Boyle.

GAINS DECISIVE VICTORY.

The victory of William B. Bridge in his fight for renomination for supervisor in the Second district against Fred F. Morse was decisive. Bridge received 2127 and Morse 1458. The voters throughout Bridge's district rallied to his support from the time that the polls opened in the morning until their close at night, and his success was assured from the first. Bridge has won unusual popularity by his close attention to the business of his office and the many improvements which he has secured for his district.

Joseph M. Kelley, supervisor from the Third district, was renominated over Louis Schaefer by 2299 votes against 1359. Kelley's victory was likewise assured from the beginning and was at no time in doubt, despite the fact that his opponents put up a hard battle. Kelley's excellent work while in office has won him the endorsement of all the residents of his district.

GEORGE W. BACON WINS.

George W. Bacon's victory over County Recorder John W. Mott was decisive. He captured the nomination by more than 4000 votes. This proves one of the surprises of the campaign, as Mott's strength was supposed to have been greater.

E. F. Garrison defeated County Auditor C. J. Lutgen by 1400 votes. This fight was in doubt until late returns were received from the outlying districts.

Police Judges George Samuels and Mortimer Smith secured their renomination. Smith by 6203 and Samuels by 6135. The victory of both was expected and created little surprise. Ben Woolner, the candidate running against Samuels, received 5161 votes.

Interest in the fight in the city of Alameda continued around the contests of Frank Otto for state senator in the Fourteenth district and Sumner Crosby, candidate for the assembly in the Twenty-seventh district. Alfred L. Morganstern, Crosby's opponent, made one of the hardest fights that marked the primary campaign in this county and was defeated by only 60 votes. Although there was some thought of having a recount in this district, the plan has not met with favor and will probably be dropped.

YOUNG WINS NOMINATION.

The office of assemblyman for the Fifty-second district served as one of the interesting features of the primary campaign in Berkeley and North Oakland. This resulted in the nomination by a majority of more than 3000 votes of C. C. Young, the incumbent.

In the Forty-eighth assembly district Robert J. Callahan won the nomination by a vote of 1041 against 773 for Daniel Ferguson and 644 for James T. Feely.

George Fitzgerald won in the Forty-ninth assembly district over John F. Kelley by 1421 to 1381.

John Mitchell, former supervisor of Alameda county, and candidate for the State Board of Equalization, received 11,372 votes, while his opponent received 10,170.

William C. Clark defeated Assemblyman Harry Fulcher in the Fifteenth assembly district by a large majority.

KELLY BEATS STEARNS.

M. J. Kelly defeated Edwin Stearns for the county treasurer's nomination by a majority of 3500 votes.

Coroner Charles L. Tisdale was nominated over Dr. T. B. Holmes by a large majority.

William R. Geary won the nomination for justice of the peace of Brooklyn township after a sharp battle with his four opponents.

Congressman J. R. Knowland had no opponent and was reominated.

Justice of the Peace Elmer A. Johnson, incumbent candidate, and Police Judge E. B. Tappan, both of whose nominations were uncontested, polled a heavy vote.

A special demonstration of playground work for the benefit of the ladies of the West Oakland and Home clubs will be held on the afternoon of September 8.

26 Stowaway Coolies Discovered on Boat

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 18.—Twenty-six half-starved Chinese coolies were discovered by United States immigration officials here yesterday on the British steamer Kumemura, which is loading lumber for Oriental markets. On the Kumemura arrived at Victoria, July 8, a total of 62 coolies have been taken into custody by the immigration officials.

The stowaways said that they had been fed by Jung Ho, one of the crew, and that they were put aboard at Yokohama, where they had brought them from Hongkong, where they had been induced to make the trip on the promise of good jobs in British Columbia. The stowaways implicated none of the white officers.

Teething babies always have a hard time if when this process occurs in hot weather. They not only have to contend with painful gums, but the stomach is also disturbed, bowel loose and the body uncomfortable. The best help you can get in this case is to give the baby a spoonful of oiline—double strength. The correct oiline—double strength, cools and tones the bowel, and helps digestion. Price 25c and 5c per bottle. Sold by Wishart's Drug Store, Tenth and Washington streets.

Prospects of Estuary Tunnel Project.

Now that Supervisor Kelley has been nominated by the Republican party to succeed himself, which assures his re-election, there's hope for the estuary tunnel project of which he is the sponsor and the promoter. It is the next great improvement which Alameda and the two cities most directly concerned—Oakland and Alameda—will have to tackle, to relieve the estuary of the obstructions to its navigation and its commerce centered in the two drawbridges crossing it at the foot of Webster and Harrison streets. These drawbridges are now maintained solely by the sufferance of the War Department and the intimation has been given by the United States engineer in charge (which is equivalent to a notice to quit) that the future improvement of the channel of Oakland harbor by the United States government for the benefit of commerce is largely dependent upon the removal of these obstructions to the free use of the waterway. The assurance that Supervisor Kelley will remain in office for the next four years strengthens the hope that this great and necessary public improvement will be started in a way that there will be no doubt about its final consummation.

The commercial bodies of Alameda and Oakland have become earnestly interested in the project and heartily endorse it. They realize that the fullest success of Oakland harbor for the uses of ocean commerce depends on the removal of these obstructions to the free navigation of the waterway, and there is no way possible by which they can be removed save through the boring of a tunnel under the estuary to carry the land traffic between the two cities concerned, which is increasing yearly at a rapid rate proportionately with their increase in population and the multiplication of the manufacturing industries on both shores of the harbor, and the water traffic for which both cities are respectively providing.

Besides the relief which the proposed tunnel will give to ocean commerce, which will be a general benefit to Alameda county, it will add immensely to the values of property on both sides of the estuary through the greater freedom to intercommunication, which will in time amply compensate for the expense which such an improvement will involve. That is what invariably follows any improvement which facilitates inter-community communication, as has been illustrated in the results which have followed the construction of the Williamsburg bridge between New York and Brooklyn to relieve the tremendous congestion over the Brooklyn bridge. A recent New York report represents that the Williamsburg bridge is now carrying a greater traffic than the Brooklyn bridge; that the revenues derived from tolls over it are much in excess of the latter, and that the Bowery, the least valuable of New York city's realty, is feeling the influence of the enormous automobile traffic which the opening of the Williamsburg bridge has diverted that way. The New York bridges are, of course, no hindrance to commerce, because they stand high enough above the navigable water to give a free right of way to shipping. But in the case of Oakland harbor bridges of like character are impossible and the only means of relief obtainable is through the boring of one or more tunnels. The effect on traffic and on property values will, however, be the same here through the agency of a tunnel as it is in New York through the duplication of bridges.

Sharers Laying for "Poor Lo."

According to a statement transmitted to the President by the special committee of the House of Representatives investigating Indian affairs in Oklahoma, the Cherokees and Cherokee of that State have paid out $3,891,394.54 in contingent fees to special attorneys during the past twenty years. The committee is investigating the charges made by Senator Gore that he was offered a bribe by J. F. McMurtry, holder of 10 per cent fee contracts for the sale of $30,000,000 worth of lands held by the Indians, to a syndicate which covets their possession and which desires Congress to remove the thirty-year restriction now imposed on the sale of the Indian allotments. Poor Lo is an easy victim to unscrupulous land sharks everywhere, who employ all kinds of devices to get him to part with his land. In Oklahoma, the landed possessions of the Indians are coveted because they are not only rich for agricultural purposes, but are more valuable for the mineral oil deposits underlying them. A similar program to that carried out in Oklahoma is being gradually worked out in and around the Klamath Indian reservation on the Oregon-California border.

"Uncle Joe" in Defiant Mood.

The assertion that the President means to include the elimination of "Uncle Joe" Cannon from the speakership in the campaign program which will be inaugurated in the Saratoga, N. Y., convention next month, has aroused the militant spirit of the old Republican warhorse, and in his address at "Old Tires and the New," delivered yesterday at the "Old Settlers" meeting at Cissna Park, Peoria county, Illinois, he scotched a note of defiance to those who are seeking to strip him of the tattoo tie powers he has long exercised in the House of Representatives. "Uncle Joe" is one of the most picturesque characters in the country, and, right or wrong, is just as full of fight as ever.

There is one thing worthy of admiration about Multi-Millionaire John D. Rockefeller, namely that he never kicks against any valuation the assessor may put on his property. He has never yet protested against a base in the valuation and assessment, but is content to jog along and draw in millions in dividends every year from Standard Oil, Anaconda Copper and other great corporations in which he is a principal owner, without protest, as long as they continue to be exempt from income tax. Clapping on $50,000 to the assessable valuation of his Tarrytown, N. Y., property has not worried him the least.

Secretary Schofield of the international organization of Master Butchers of the World lays the blame of the high cost of meats at the door of the farmer, whom he accuses of being too hasty about the slaughtering of cattle, hogs and lambs. Schofield has gone far afield for a scapegoat on which to transfer the sins of the beef trust and the cattle barons of the country. It will be news to the farmers of the country that they are the main source of meat supply or are, in any sense, responsible for either early or late slaughtering.

Now that the agony of the primaries is over let us get down to business and forget politics for a few weeks at least.

Taft and Roosevelt at Odds.

The inevitable seems to have occurred between President Taft and ex-President Roosevelt—they have come to the "parting of the ways," and are openly at odds. The rupture was plainly foreshadowed when the ex-President met Pinchot in secret conference in Europe on his way home from the African jungles. Roosevelt's silence regarding what had taken place at the interview was an ominous sign. Holding aloof from any intercourse with Taft for a long period after returning to Oyster Bay, meantime holding frequent secret conferences there with insurgent leaders, indicated plainly that Roosevelt was preparing for an open break with the President and that the most trivial circumstance might be the means of creating a rupture.

It has come about sooner than was expected, perhaps, by most students of political events and through means equally unexpected. Doubtless the attitude of the administration in opposition to the Cobell direct primary law before the New York state legislature, which measure the latter body rejected, although Roosevelt had recommended its passage, precipitated the breach. It is quite possible that the militant ex-President may have purposely forced the issue by becoming a candidate before the Republican State Central Committee for the temporary chairmanship of the Saratoga convention next month.

That Taft is in perfect accord with the action taken by the State Committee and approves the selection of Vice-President Sherman as temporary chairman of the convention, is evident from the long conference between the two at Beverly yesterday afternoon, and the announcement which Sherman made, after the conference closed, that he had no intention to withdraw from the temporary chairmanship in Roosevelt's favor and that Taft would write a letter which should serve the purpose of the keynote to the coming campaign and be incorporated in the Republican Committee's campaign textbook.

President Taft's course is a declaration of independence and emancipation from the restraint which has hitherto been imposed upon him by the assumption that he was merely an exponent of the Rooseveltian policies and not a free agent. It is in the nature of an open challenge to the ex-President.

Interest now centers on the question: Will the militiamen attend the Saratoga convention as delegates? If he does, another question naturally arises: Will he endeavor to wield the "big stick" and smash a platform framed by his successor for whom he was sponsor? An unprecedented political situation is evidently in the formative stage at present.

Twenty Years Ago in Oakland

In 1861 Merritt, the man most prominent in the establishment and building of the city of Oakland, died peacefully yesterday morning in the fullness of years after a life of activity and energy and a commercial career which now seems like a romance of romance. He was 88 years of age. The funeral drew his last breath at half-past 7 o'clock. His death was not unexpected. For months he had been failing slowly, in fact, he never recovered from influenza when he was thrown from a buggy several years ago, and, after his failure, his decline began. About 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning he became unconscious and death ensued three hours later. At his bedside were his devoted sister, Mrs. Garrison, Miss McClellan, Dr. Agard, his physician; Mr. Huntington, his cousin and business manager, his friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Teller. The funeral services will be held tomorrow from the late residence of the deceased on Madison street between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets. County Clerk and Auditor Charles T. Boardman returned to his office today after an illness of a number of days. He feels grieved about the reports which have been circulated about him during his absence from his office. He says that his books are open to inspection by any citizen of the county. He declares that he will be a candidate for re-election to the office of county clerk.

"I have been working for Gov. ...," said the plumber. "I have been fixing his bathtub. It was broke; and I said to the governor, 'How on earth did you break off that faucet?' And he said, 'I hit it.' And I said, 'How did you hit it?' He said, 'I hit with my head.' I said, 'Did you knock the faucet off with your head, for if you did you must have hurt yourself awfully?'"

"And he said, 'Well, I was taking a bath and I slipped and fell, and I hit the faucet with my head, and it broke off.' Then I started to go away, having fixed the faucet which had broken off, and the governor, he says, 'Now, don't you say tell that to anybody because there are some persons who do not like men and they'll put it in the papers, and then they'll laugh and say I have a bone-head to break a faucet.' And I told him I wouldn't say a word, and won't. It was up to his house at Spring Lake; but my, I did laugh. No mistake, to think of Gov. Fort knocking off a faucet with his head and not minding it a bit. He's got a good head all right, I tell you. But don't you mention it?"—Philadelphia Times.

In a letter published in the Syracuse Post-Standard ex-Ambassador Andrew D. White speaks vigorously on the subject of "the chicanery, pettifogging and infidelity in the defense of ethnics." He says that "homelands have increased within fifteen years from 2000 a year to nearly 10,000, placing us by far in the lead of all civilized nations. In this respect," and that there were capital convulsions in only about seventy cases last year. "The immediate cause of the whole of this state of things, with constantly increased disregard of law, is in my opinion," adds Mr. White, "a kind of sickly sentiment pervading the whole country on this subject."

Major-General Leonard Wood has become commander of the American army at its early age of 49 years. As the age limit for active service in the field is 62 years, he will be thirteen years in the rated position of chief of the general staff. He assumed his new duties the first week of July. His head in this for a time being Governor's Island, in New York harbor. Later he will be in Washington. As most of the generals who have risen to the highest position have been nearer the age limit, they have had a comparatively short period in which to carry out their ideas. General Wood will be fortunate in having such an extended period to develop any plans he may have. He is known as a man of ideas, very progressive, and anxious to make our small army as efficient as possible. His interest also extends to the organized militia of the country, which, under the recent legislation of Congress, has become closely affiliated with the regular forces. DR. JOHNSON'S HOUSE

American visitors and other enthusiasts came into Old Gough Square, off Fleet street, yesterday, to experience considerable alarm and distress. Around No. 17, the famous and utterly neglected—but for a moment—tablets—Dr. Johnson House, a great building which stood, No. 17 Gough square must always be interesting. Johnson lived there from 1748, and compiled there a large portion of his dictionary. The garret was the working place of his six apprentices. It was here that Johnson was arrested for £500 on March 16, 1756, the money being paid by Samuel Richardson.

For late years the house has been used for commercial and office purposes, and for two months past it has been vacant. Positively last week—the theatrical season of the city.

OAKLAND TEAM IS TRYING HARD TO LAND AT TOP OF PENNANT RACE

OAKS, AIDED BY JACK LIVELY, TURN TABLES ON THE BEAVERS

Star Slabster of Locals Has Portland Club at His Mercy From Start to Finish in a Very Close Game

PORLTAND Aug. 18—Oaks and com right back at the Beavers had a postcard afternoon and though good ball playing and classy pitching on the part of Joe Lively turned the tables on McClellan men by a score of 10 to 0. The big low keyed the Oaks to a hard hitting and start working to perfection and the best the Beavers could get was three batters who didn't get out but they did.

Portland only got two second twice during the game and only once did it see the third sack. In the second inning the Oaks expected the catcher to be hit but he wasn't. Lively's first pitch was a curve and went to second on Swander's boot right field. He went to third on a passed ball but I. C. H. was up and struck out at Swander and Spens.

A few more loops were rolled for the locals in the fourth seventh when Casey drew a walk with only one out but the Oaks were put out when Sheehan hit in a double play.

It can hardly be said that Krapp pitched a steady game. It was regular but not good for two. Oaks' bats were up since every inning except the fifth at least and for ten were let on base during the game. Krapp was found seven times and he gave seven walks coming in plus in all the innings except the fifth and seventh.

The only score of the game resulted when he reversed his usual order and hit the ball to the left fielder, as in charge to Catcher L. L. L. Krapp at that, for Gus had a stolen base again him and was now holding a passed ball which he had to give up. Spens walked, stole second and went to third on a passed ball. Illogan then pulled oa scratch hit that Casey touched with one hand scoring Swander. Score by Innings:

FAIR BOOSTERS TO INVITE GOVERNORS TO CALIFORNIA

Illusionist Promises to Explain How Leading Mediums Carry on Work.

SPECIAL W. P. TRAIN
TO LEAVE SALT LAKE

Executives Meet to Talk Protection in Coming Conservation Congress.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 18.—With the purpose in view of interesting all Western states in the proposed Pan-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco in 1915, an invitation will be extended to the Governors present and representatives of absent Governors at the Conservation Conference of Western Executives here today, to visit San Francisco at the conclusion of the Salt Lake meeting.

The invitation will be extended by Congressman Julius Kahn who is here as Governor Gillett's representative at the Governor's meeting and S. Fred Horne of San Francisco, a director of the exposition company.

SPECIAL W. P. TRAIN.

Arrangements have been made for a special train over the Western Pacific to leave here Saturday morning and at 8 o'clock will be made to have it be the first passenger train into California over the two-story, six-car train and will reach the destination Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Horne said last night that it was assured of acceptance by the Governors and the personnel of the party, however, until after the invitation has been formally delivered. Several of the executives expected here, did not arrive until this morning and consequently knew nothing of the invitation until its meeting today.

GOVERNORS MEET.

Governors or their representatives of the Inter-Mountain Coast and Sixth Western States, including Governor Sibley of Utah today to outline plans whereby the rights of those states to their natural resources may be preserved and their interests protected in the coming national conservation congress which meets in St. Paul September 5.

The present meeting was called by Governor Gillett, who is here but the Western Fair is not playing fair in handling the matter of conservation of natural resources. He is outspoken upon the subject and his primary aim is calling the meeting to form a plan which the so-called "Northwestern Idea" may be presented to the congress. This idea is briefly that the states themselves should have charge of and the disposition of their resources.

MORE PACIFIC.

Governor Sibley and some of the others are more pacific in their attitude but are agreed that the West must take prompt action to prevent the loss of its natural resources. He is outspoken upon the subject and his primary aim is calling the meeting to form a plan which the so-called "Northwestern Idea" may be presented to the congress. This idea is briefly that the states themselves should have charge of and the disposition of their resources.

HUSBAND SOUGHT FORTUNE IN HASTE

Mrs. Mars Says Spouse Was Visionary; Would Get Rich Quick.

Telling the court that her husband's actions include were responsible for all the domestic misery she suffered while living with him, Edith E. Mars of Berkeley yesterday obtained from Superior Judge Hards an interlocutory decree of divorce from Amaru A. Mars, a non-resident, on the ground of desertion, and the custody of their minor daughter.

The couple had been separated for about eight years. Mrs. Mars' testimony being to the effect that her husband, who is a publisher, could not make a living for her. He first got himself into trouble in San Francisco, he sold shares in the French paper. He sold shares in a way that was not "strictly according to Hoyle," according to Mrs. Mars.

She says he went to San Jose, California, and married there. Then he drifted down to Los Angeles, where some of his countrymen established a French paper for him.

GOES UP IN SMOKE.

His venture also went up in smoke, and in regard to his business methods Mrs. Mars said:

"My husband has always wanted to get rich quick. He wants to do something other people do; he wants to manipulate or do something else and make a big fortune all at once. That's not the kind of a literary man he is. He is a literary writer of marked ability and highly educated, but not practical. He is always looking for a quick way to get rich. He seems to possess the faculty of making a living."

Mrs. Mars told Judge Hards that she did not know Mars' present whereabouts. She heard from him he was still in Los Angeles.

As far as I know he was still in Los Angeles.

LOVE DESERTED THEM;
HUBBY FOLLOWED SUIT.

Marital bliss with Gertrude Thompson lasted only six months, according to the testimony upon which she was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce yesterday in the Superior Court from Bert Thompson, a Los Angeles contractor and builder. The couple had been married in October, 1908, and Thompson deserted his wife, she still in Los Angeles, the following April.

SCHAFFER IS HIT HARD AND THE SEALS ARE EASY WINNERS

Harry Sutor Shows Some Class in the Hurling Line and Has Hooligans Under Control
From Start of Game to Finish

By BERT LOWRY.

Our timely, well placed swats, coupled with a far away home into centerfield by catcher Brown of the Vernonites, gave San Francisca four runs in the fourth inning; and four healthy, timely swats, coupled with two batters errors in the seventh inning, gave the Ewings four more. All the time the Hooligans were trying to dent the plate, but there was nothing doing and the game ended with the Seals eight in the big book and the Hooligans nary a one.

It was one of those peppery, gingery ball games that the two teams played the day before; perhaps the shock of the primaries put the Jinks on the Hooligans, but at that, it was pretty good baseball in spots. Both teams go away fine and dandy through the first three innings, with Sutor pitching great ball and Schaffer too. Butched grabbed a single from the Hoosiers and the batsman got to third when Sutor contributed a wild pitch, but that was as far as he got. Then came the undoing of Mr. Schaffer and the retirement of Mr. Hapless Hogan to a little hole back of the grandstand.

SEALS LAND ON SCHAFER FOR A QUARTERTE OF TALLIES.

Tommy Madden was the first Seal to face Schaffer in the fourth inning and went out via the brother Brashears' route. Mohler sized up the situation, left field, landing safely at first base, and the ball was too warm for Burrel to handle. Lewis, there with the big bingle it seems, when needed, flopped one into right field, and Mohler needled to third. While Brown was pegging the ball to Durrell, Jimmie was trekking for second and made it. Up comes Jimmy Tenant, primed to lead off, but the one he clipped went to centerfield and was recorded. In the book as a two-bagger. It is hardly necessary to say that Mohler and Lewis reached the pan on this swat.

Lindsay, 2B, and Brown, 3B, followed, and Mohler needled to third. While Brackenridge had treated him the day before, drove one into left for a safety, sending Tenant to third base. Bodie then gave the signal for the double steal and Brown hit the ball directly into center-field, although he was supposed to hit it second base. Tenant reached the plate and is old Bodie, he kept putting the spike and landed before the centerfielder could throw to the plate. All told this made four runs.

BOTH TEAMS PLAY NICELY UNTIL THE SEVENTH INNING.

With this next little lead, Harry Sutor kept right on pegging it over, and outside of a bit hit and there, had the Vernons eating out of his hand. Schaffer was going good, but then the unexpected happened in the seventh and Ewing's men added to the run column and a few of the boys fattened their hitting averages.

Williams, 2B, and Williams that opened this round and he hit one away out to the outfield fence for two bases. McArchie made little effort to get out of the way of a shot and was permitted to go to the initial cushion, as my friend Able would say. Sutor tried to lay down a bunt, but struck out. Tommy Madden scurried along the third base line and the two runs on the bag went up a notch. McArchie hit another to right and Lewis got in the run column. That ended the tallies, making it all together.

As there wasn't anything else worth writing about, we will close the tale and refer you, Sweet Marie and the rest of us, to the next issue. Then we'll go to the city of Mexico.

WORLD'S RECORDS ARE MADE ON FORT ERIE TRACK BY HARVESTER

Ed. Geers Reels Off Mile in 2:02 With Sturdy Son of Walnut Hull at Buffalo Meet.

BUFFALO, Aug. 18.—World's records were made yesterday at the Fort Erie track when The Harvester, driven by Ed Geers, covered a mile in 2:02 over a track said to be fully a second slow. The record time was made in the last heat of the 2:07 trot, distance being waived by the two starters.

The half was made in 1:01 and the sturdy son of Walnut Hull dashed under the wire with a champion's record. He had clipped a quarter of a second off the world's record of Crescendo, made nine years ago, established a new third heat record on stations, mares or geldings, and also made a world's record for a 5-year-old trotter.

Dickie Michalek, heretofore unbeaten, was defeated by Hallworth in the $3000 King George V stake for 2:15 trotters.

2:10 pace, the Laurel, $2000—Earl J. won. Merry Widener, second, Good Goods.

2:15 trot, the King George V, $2000—Hallworth won. Joan second, Dudio.

2:07 trot, $1000—The Firecracker won.

Willie, second, Baron May third.

Best time, 2:02.

Heavyweights will make up the special event. Victor MacLagan of the Western club will clash with Charlie Miller, the giant motorist. Roger Connell has been getting MacLagan into shape and looks like a winner. The race is set for 1:50.

Edd Marion and Lawrence Granfield will engage in the other four-round heavyweight bout. The two heavyweights appear to be evenly matched and a scientific exhibition should be witnessed when they are in action.

Paul Reed, Diamond club, 125 pounds.

Lew Galatoire, South City vs. Bill O'Brien Western club, 123 pounds.

Happy Savage, Stevedores' Union, vs. Tom Condon, Teamsters' Union, 125 pounds.

Charles Rogers, Western club, 127 pounds.

Al Nelson, the Terrible Swede, vs. Al Kreiger, fighting teamster, heavyweight.

DAYLIGHT ROBBER CONFESSES CRIME

Captive Tells How He and Companion Struck Down Pawn Broker.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Jewelry valued at about $2000, said to have been part of the booty stolen from a pawn shop in Los Angeles, was recovered last night by detectives, following the arrest of Harry J. Nau, 23 years old. The latter confessed to the robbery of the pawn broker.

"We entered the pawn shop pretending that we wanted to purchase some jewelry," said Nau to police yesterday. "As the pawnbroker was stooping over to take out a tray of rings, my companion struck him over the head with a club and he was made unconscious."

"We then dragged him into a rear room, where we bound and gagged him."

F. H. HITCHCOCK TO VISIT NEW STATES

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock left Chicago last night on a combination hunting and political trip into New Mexico and Arizona; his mission being to start organizing in the new states with a view of electing four new Republican United States senators.

Both of the new states have to frame a constitution, submit it to the voters for approval and then have it ratified by congress before they become full-fledged commonwealths and the fight now over the election of the two state legislatures, which in turn elect the senators.

Mr. Hitchcock took a prominent part in the movement to give statehood to New Mexico and Arizona, and his trip to line up the new states for the Republicans is said to be on his own initiative as much as at the instance of the administration.

'Hoop-La' Is Branded Gambling and Barred From County Fairs

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 18.—"Ringling" knives and cones at county fairs have declared a game of skill, but "Hoop-La" is gambling within the meaning of the agricultural law, according to an opinion rendered by Attorney-General O'Malley.

Agricultural associations which permit gambling games at fairs are in danger of forfeiting their right to any State money for fair purposes, said Commissioner of Education. The State Department of Agriculture asked the Attorney General to advise him whether the game of "Hoop-La" was to be construed as gambling.

A recourse to the dictionary failed to enlighten any one in the Attorney General's office as to the nature of "Hoop-La." It was finally ascertained that the game consists of the throwing of a hoop at a block of wood in an endeavor to circle the block with the hoop. The Attorney General holds that the game is gambling, because, although it may be possible to ring the block, the chances of success at the game are so small that the player is almost certain to fail in his efforts.

Cradle of Prohibition, Historic Old Church, Abandoned by Flock

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Aug. 18.—Never again will religious services be held in the old First Methodist Church, an edifice here known throughout the state as "The Cradle of Prohibition."

The church has played a part of the structure and the church trustees have decided to abandon it.

It was in the early '70s that the prohibition movement, which later drove saloons out of business, was given its birth in the church. A saloon just across the street kept open on Sundays, its owners defying the church members to do the same.

His defiant attitude caused the members of the church to start the first prohibition campaign in the state.

Business Men Organize Club for Improvement

INTER-STATE WINS AT GALVESTON.

O. H. Davies is in receipt of a wire from the Inter-State factory to the effect that the Inter-State entered in the Galveston, Tex., races made a splendid showing, winning first in the event it entered, over the Stoddard-Dayton and Simplex. This same car is to be entered in the coming Phoenix road race, the hardest and most severe event of its kind which is run in this country.

George T. Lehrer was chairman of the first meeting held in the old Bellarmine hall and Charles Bright acted as secretary. Regular meetings of the club will be held and it is expected by those interested that much benefit will be derived from their activity.

Non-Support Law Is Praised by Judge

"This new law that compels fathers to provide for their dependent children is a felony to neglect them. It is also an offense in the criminal department of the state," said Judge Everett J. Brown yesterday in the courtroom of the Alameda County Probation Department. "John Wilson, a probationer who violated the privilege, to one year in the county jail. I believe that if it was more vigorously applied the results would be far-reaching in its effects."

Habitual drunkenness was given as the cause of Wilson's neglect of his children. He was given a choice of a fine or imprisonment. Judge Brown tried him out on probation, but the man is said to have got drunk every time the opportunity presented itself.

Protect White House With Lightning Rods

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The White House is said to have been made absolutely safe from lightning. The electricians excelled themselves in getting the root of the trouble and in the end, when they have also run rods and laid a network of wires along the parapets and across the roof. This had been done in order that if the soil should miss any part of the underground rods, there would be effective against any possible part of the root. Aside from this, the White House is undergoing the usual summer repairs.

When President Taft returns to the White House after the autumn session of Congress, the fall work will find everything at the executive home in ship shape.

Constipation is the starting point for many serious disease. To be healthy keep the bowels active and regular. HERBINE will remove all accumulations in the bowels and put the system in prime condition. Price 50c. Sold by Wright's Drug Store, Ninth and Washington streets.

WHITE MANAGER BACK FROM TRIP

Hawkins Reports Remarkable Activity in Auto Industry in North.

C. A. Hawkins, the western manager for the White Company, has just returned to this city from an extended trip through the northwest, during which time he visited all of the important points in Oregon, Washington and British Columbia.

Mr. Hawkins reports the sale of the White gas car in the northwest as booming, particularly the truck business. Mr. C. A. Eastman, who was formerly the assistant manager at San Francisco for the White Company, and who resigned to take the agency for that car at Portland, Oregon, has sold twenty-seven of the large White trucks within the last twenty-two days in Portland. This breaks all records for a town of the size of Portland for the sale of trucks. Four of these trucks are being used to haul pipe up Mt. Hood to distribute along the line of the new Bull Run water line, which brings the melting snow from the top of Mt. Hood into Portland.

The phenomenal demand for a strictly high-grade car of moderate size, moderate price and moderate power, such as the White gas car, is due largely to the fact that the manufacturers themselves are turning to the lighter weight cars because of the freedom of operation and the economy of operation and those customers who have been using one of the various makes of those manufacturers who have been trying to see who could build the best car, are turning almost without exception to looking for something of better quality, realizing that it is more economical to pay a few hundred dollars more for a car in the first place.

Mr. Teichner, the veteran San Francisco retail man, is traveling wholesale for the White Company in the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia and has had with phenomenal success.

Mr. Hawkins' trip lasted over a period of two weeks, during which time his sales amounted to 250 cars, divided between the gas car and the steamer and which included, practically, every one of the White Company's 32 different models, comprising the 20 and 40 horsepower steam car and the 30 and 60 horsepower gas car, and the various types of bodies and the 1000 lb., 1500 lb., 2000 lb. and the 3 to 5-ton trucks.

Mr. Hawkins reports trade conditions in the northwest are very prosperous.

MANY DELIVERIES BY PIONEER CO.

The local branch of the Pioneer Automobile Co. report a number of interesting sales during the past few days, among them being delivery of a 4-40 Thomas Pony Tonneau to J. L. Atkinson, 1000 Market St.; to Mrs. H. Johnson of Piedmont; Perry Tonneau, 30-horsepower Chalmers to Mr. Black of Reed, Black & Reed; Hudson touring cars to the Metropolitan Furniture Co. and Mr. Davis of Oakland.

1911 CHALMERS CARS ARE HERE.

The 1911 model of the Chalmers "Thirty" car arrived in San Francisco yesterday, and for the next few days it will be on exhibition in the salesroom of the Pioneer Automobile Co. The new "Thirty," like its predecessors of the past two years, is built along lines that are pleasing to the eye. In this respect, as in its mechanical refinements, it has been improved over the 1910 car.

Calvin C. Els, vice-president of the Pioneer Automobile Company, with W. T. Wicks, general manager, came after the new car out a little yesterday afternoon and declared himself well satisfied with its performance. He said:

"All the mechanical specifications of the new car are practically the same as the 1910 model. There is no occasion to change them beyond the inclusion of minor improvements and refinements. All the 'Thirty' models have the 15-inch wheel-base and 45-inch wheels, unit power of plant, drop forged front axle, full floating rear axle, with pressed steel housing, and three-quarter elliptic rear springs. The designers of the Chalmers have proved by the winning of the Gidden tour by one of this type. The Chalmers 'Thirty' held up for five days after every other car in the contest had lost a perfect score under the most strenuous road conditions. That is the best word that has ever been done by a small car."

STEVENS GOES TO MCLEROY.

M. J. McElroy of this city has taken delivery from the Pacific Motor Car Co. of a 4-cylinder 1911 Stevens-Duryea.

COAST PROTECTED FROM AN INVASION

General Murray Declares That Pacific Is Able to Repel Attacking Army.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Brigadier-General Arthur Murray of the Coast Artillery is in New York preparing for an extended trip of coast defense inspection, to the most southerly point on the Gulf of Mexico.

The main purpose of the trip is to determine the feasibility of placing additional coast fortifications to place the nation in such a position that it may feel safe from successful attack by an enemy.

TAILOR'S ESTATE WORTH $333,000

Late Olaf W. Nordwell Leaves All to Wife and Children.

According to a petition filed today in the superior court for the probate of the will of the late Olaf W. Nordwell of 18 Lake Avenue, Piedmont, who died last month in San Francisco as a mercantile tailor, the deceased left an estate valued at about $320,000 consisting of a tailoring establishment in Bush street, San Francisco, personal effects, and bank accounts showing capital stock in sun-clothing and real estate.

By the terms of the will, Mrs. Nordwell, the widow, who is named as executrix without bonds, is given one-half of the entire estate outright and the residue is to be divided in equal shares among the four children: William L. Alfred W. Eva, W. L. Dorothy L. Nordwell to be held in trust until the testator's wife is now 18 years of age reaches her majority.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

Money Can Buy No Better
Piano Than the STEINWAY

The satisfaction that this assurance carries with it is worth a great deal to those music lovers who seek the best.

The STEINWAY piano is the standard of comparison among high grade pianos, and the pioneer in all real improvements.

Its wonderful tone will inspire the student or the professional musician as no other piano can.

Any medium or low-priced piano purchased from us may be returned at any time within three years as part payment on a Steinway. We will allow you all you have paid on the piano.

AMERICAN LAWYER SAY GOVERNMENT DEFENDS PULLOW CLERKS POOR PAY

The Attorney for Jan Puren Is Selected to Take Case of International Interest.

BOSTON Aug 18.—Simon C. Pollock, New York lawyer who last fall succeeded in preventing the extradition to Russia of Jan Puren, the revolutionist, has announced that he will act in the defense of Andrew Pullow, in jail here charged with having participated in the theft of $50,000 from the safe trustee of Tito's Russian Trans Caucasus in 1907. Pollock, who is now in Boston, hopes to prove that Pullow was at the University of Zurich, Switzerland, at the time of the robbery. If that is not enough he will claim that the offense charged was committed one and therefore Pullow could not be extradited.

450-Pound Sideshow 'Baby' Arrested for Working Under Age

ASTORIA Ore. Aug 18.—At the County Clerk's office Tuesday a mortician was shot by the Pacific Power and Light Company of Seattle to the United States Mortgagage and Trust Company of New York, its trustee. The man was one of the company's holdings and it was his other points in Oregon and Washington are given to secure $50,000. In twenty years bonds will mature August 1, 1930. The Pacific Power and Light Company is the operator of the electric light power and street railway plants as well as a number of small plants in the upper Columbia river and Yukon valley districts.

I am only 12, I tell him, but I have troubles enough for an old man. When I was a baby I could not go, enough to eat. When I was old enough to go to school the other people would not let me. The teacher did not find a seat for me, for she said I weighed 30 pounds. They took me out of school at last and I got this job in the mail. I think that my dad was going to do some good at last but I was too weak. Hero I am just as the season is going good, mind you, because the say I'm under age.

Inspector Das is told Harry that he would have to obey the law which means probably that the suit will be dismissed.

Islanders in Mutiny Against Churchman

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 18.—Mutiny broke out among the官兵 in Out is who are garrisoned in the San Juan Islands of Washington Island in the South Pacific ocean. In the city of Port Townsend, the port of entry, the mutineers forced the captain of the "Cape Castle," which was in the harbor, to put down the line of San Fransisco. The rebels, who were in the desolate islands, made Captain and his crew to go ashore. The rebels then tried to light fires to burn down the fortifications. The rebels had been engaged in fighting the Spanish in their attempt to seize the islands.

Holds Detective Ended Own Life

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 18.—A verdict of death by a razor wound inflicted has been returned by the coroner as the result of the instant inquest of L. J. Griffin, the detective who came home in such terrible condition. Mrs. Maybell Restell, the Queen of the underworld, was reported that Griffin was victim of friends of Restell but the jury declared that it was a case of suicide.

A brief discussion of the situation showed that the Griffin and his wife are in no real difficulty. Friend and foe are as representative of the underworld as the Queen of the underworld. There was a report that Griffin was victim of friends of Restell but the jury declared that it was a case of suicide.

ARRANGE PROGRAM FOR BIG FESTIVAL

Committee Meets and Prepares Numbers to Be Given During Session.

At a meeting of the local committee in Germany Hall last night preliminary arrangements were made for the Oakland day of the Pacific Staenderband festival to be Old St. Francis the first week in September.

It was decided that the Oak program will be held at the local theater the day of the festival. The first day's concert will take place in San Francisco on September 1 and the final day's program of old German plays of Hans Sachs by German students of the University of California will take place at the City Theater in Berkeley on the night of September 5. The concert in it will be given during the Staenderband festival.

Despondent Laborer Tries to End Life

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 18.—Out of work and worrying about a series of unfortunate circumstances that had befallen him John Strandberg, a laborer, fired a bullet into his chest in his room in Brooklyn last evening. He was found by his employer, a man named Joseph A. Gordon, who is native of New York.

COMMITTEE TO REPORT

A meeting of the executive committee of the local tournament association to be held at the Alhambra building Friday evening (August 1) to consider a bill to amend the United States Civil Service Retirement Association that will add to the contribution plan of retirement for the compensation of employees of the federal government.
